

Bertha Marie Offret
McKean

Bertha Marie Offret McKean, 90, of Layton, Utah, formerly of Orem, Utah, died June 11, 2002.

She was born September 20, 1911 in Provo, Utah to Yves Marion and Bertha Eliza Bates Offret. She married Edward Fordyce McKean on June 24, 1938 at the Wildwood Resort, Provo, Utah. He preceded her in death on February 4, 1967. They were the parents of one son and two daughters.

She worked for the Startup Candy Company and was involved in the Singing Mothers. She loved gardening, crocheting and bowling. She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She is survived by her children: Douglas (Carol) McKean, Farmington, Utah; Diane Mallinson, Orem, Utah and Linda Graft, Salt Lake City, Utah; 10 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, two brothers and three sisters: Deyor Offret and Deyeri Jensen both of Provo, Utah; Vera Hall, American Fork, Utah; Isabella Lewis, Pleasant Grove, Utah and Henry Offret, Provo, Utah. She was preceded in death by her parents (Mama and Papa) her husband, Ford; sisters, Vivian, Sylvia, brother, Marion; son-in-law, Jay Mallinson.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, June 15, 2002 at 1:00 p.m. in the Walker Sanderson Funeral Home, 646 East 800 North, Orem, Utah. Friends may call from 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. prior to services. Burial will be in the Orem City Cemetery.